Cpl. Talamantes Home On Furlough

Returning home for the first time within a year Corporal Bill Talamantes, son of Constable and Mrs. Pat Talamantes, is today being given greetings from his hosts of friends. Corporal Bill joined the army two years ago and attended school at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, where he was graduated as a skilled mechanic. He is now stationed at Camp Bowie, Texas, and has been given a 15-day furlough which will be spent here with his parents. Relatives and friends are planning many dinners and parties for Corporal Talamantes who reports that he is interested in army life and well satisfied.

Staff Sergeant Patricia Talamantes of the WACs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Talamantes who is stationed in Mississippi recently acted as bridesmaid for a girl friend in the service who became the bride of an army officer at a fashionable wedding in Mississippi. Sgt. Patricia has not seen her brother Corporal Talamantes for two years.

"Pat" Talamantes Enlists In Army

Patricia (Pat) Talamantes, daughter of Constable and Mrs. Pat Talamantes, who served as S. Sgt. in the WAC's for 2 years and 11 months during the war, has re-enlisted in the army for service in the European theatre. During the war she served as supply sergeant and spent much of the time at Gulfport, Field, Miss.

After being honorably discharged from the army Pat assumed a position with the So-нома County Veterans' Service office in Santa Rosa where she has been busy for the past nine months.

She is leaving here on Monday, October 28, for San Francisco, where she will be sworn in as a member of the Woman's Army Auxiliary Corps, and will then leave for Ft. Dix, New Jersey where she will await for an assignment to the European theatre. Pat is deeply interested in the work and anxious to go overseas where her brother, Bill, in the U. S. army, is stationed in Germany.
